A real photographic postcard dated 11th. July 1907 of the Egham Hospital Fête almost certainly on Englefield Green, with steam fair in the background and ladies in the foreground in their finery (with not even an ankle showing) watching daylight fireworks. The spectators obviously kept local milliners and haberdashers in business, besides, at this event supported their hospital, the former Cottage Hospital at the junction of Bond Street and St. Jude's Road soon to be developed into luxury apartments.

MAGNA CARTA

(THE GREAT CHARTER)

RUNNYMEDE - OUR PLACE IN HISTORY

To many, in fact to the majority, the name Runnymede conjures up faded memories of an almost mythical place where, once upon a time, an infamous king was forced to sign a lengthy document drawn up by his once most favoured - but now rebellious, subjects, demanding his immediate compliance to a list of bitterly held grievances. This document was to become known as Magna Carta - The Great Charter of Rights. Amongst its demands was for the king's unambiguous commitment to the acceptance of the establishment of a nationwide rule of law and justice, under which all, including himself, were to be subject.

Reluctantly agreed, at a parley convened on a riverside field outside Windsor, and duly sealed with the monarch's Great Seal, Magna Carta and Runnymede secured their places in history. Seven Hundred and ninety-nine years may have passed since that fateful day, in June 1215, but the legacy of that occasion can be seen across the globe today, in the justice systems that have been born of it, and established throughout the free world.

In a year's time, the Borough will have the honour of joining the national celebrations currently being planned to commemorate this great moment in history. Runnymede will be contributing on a local level with its own celebrations and, together with the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead and the Royal Holloway College, will be presenting a festival of entertainment and educational material, particularly aimed at our anticipated visitors and, of course, our own residents.

It is anticipated that Her Majesty, or another senior member of the Royal Family, will attend on the 15th June, 2015, on Runnymede Meadows, to speak of the significance and relevance of Magna Carta to all in our Borough.

I trust you will all join with me in engaging in this task, so that when someone says "what's all this Magna Carta business" we will all be able to respond positively about the legacy of Runnymede - the place from which, history records, the rule of law and the establishment of justice, were first introduced to England, from whence they have been carried to all corners of the earth.

Cllr Derek Cotty

Our compere again this year is Mike Enser. Mike was born and bought up in Englefield Green attending the junior school in Barley Mow Road and then St Judes, followed by Magna Carta and Strodes.

Mike has built up a large portfolio of media work, including writing, producing, directing and performing in radio and TV adverts and vodcasts (video pod casts). Recently he has taken a residency at the Cricketers Pub in Rowtown as their pub quiz host. He also works with So Sinatra, the UKs leading Frank Sinatra Tribute performer.

He works in Egham as Head of Marketing for the British Marine Federation and National Boat Shows and lives in Rowtown with wife

Where does your money go ?

Whilst not a fund raising organisation, EGVRA does accumulate funds from The Village Fair and other activities which we believe should be invested in local organisations.

Donations have been made to Englefield Green Scout Group, the St Jude's Junior School Instrument Fund, Manorcroft United Football Club, the Corby Drive Youth Centre and East – to – West.

And more recently for glass doors and wooden gates for The Village Centre, kit for Manorcroft United, fencing for new Village Hub on the Forest Estate, creating flower beds in St. Judes Road and a wooden bench in the centre of the village.

We have also entertained groups of elderly residents to Xmas dinners in the past, as well as funding Xmas parties for local children

Each year we organise a partially funded Christmas Tree in St Jude's Road.

It is also hoped to make a contribution towards the creation of a Memorial in the cemetery to those brave residents who have died in the two World Wars in defence of our country.

To become a member please complete and return the application form on the back page together with the appropriate membership fee. Make cheques payable to EGVRA and send to EGVRA c/o Englefield Green Social Hall, Harvest Road, Englefield Green, Surrey, TW20 0QT
